

The 7th Grade Poetry Foundation announces

The 2016 7GP Contest

REGISTER YOUR SCHOOL TODAY AT 7GP.ORG

Why Register?

- The 7GP program is FREE and easy to administer. Each school chooses one student winner.
- Gives all 7th graders a chance to develop their own poetic voices through creative self-expression
- Improves classroom outcomes relevant to the Common Core State Standard in Communication Arts
- Unifies students, parents, educators and schools in the community during National Poetry Month

Contest Prizes

- Winning poems are published in the 2016 7GP poetry anthology, Poetry on Our Terms
- The 2016 poetry anthology will be donated to each winner and each school's educator contact in addition to each participating school library, local public library and Poets House in New York City
- Recognition at a regional Poetry Reading Event held in April or May at a prominent location
- A film of each winning student reading their winning poem is featured on 7gp.org and YouTube
- $25 cash prize

IGNITE, WRITE, EXCITE, UNITE

If you have questions, please review FAQ on 7gp.org or contact Aaron Williams at aaron@7gp.org or 314-367-1777. Follow us @7thgradepoetry.